

BOOO!

You've been BOO'D by Billy!

The air is cool, the season fall

Sir William leaves his calling card—a challenge to all!

Put on the armor of God, find the strength of our Lord

Hold faith as a shield, and the Word as your sword

Ghosts and goblins, spooks galore,

Tricky folks at your front door . . .

These spooks are no match for the Word from above,

The gospel of peace from our Lord of love!

Your mission? Help Sir William spread some OLOH cheer

Gift three Crusader families, far or near

Create a basket of goodies for each one

Filled to the brim with ghoul-fighting fun

Then drop them off in the dark of night

And watch their hearts smile at the dawn of the Light

Enclose this poem, and one more chore . . .

Place this 'We've been Boo'd by Billy!' sign on your front door:

Fall blessings and Halloween fun,

your fellow OLOH Crusader family

WE'VE BEEN BOO'D

by Billy!
